

Leslie Dughi

Profile

Leslie Dughi brings more than 25 years' experience representing clients before Florida's Legislative and Executive Branches. She has engaged in major legislative initiatives on behalf of health care facilities and professionals, transportation providers, as well as health, property, and workers' compensation insurers. During her career, she also developed considerable expertise in political communications, serving as the political director for Associated Industries of Florida and as director of government affairs for the Florida Chamber of Commerce.