Warren is the managing shareholder of MHD, where he leads the firm's administrative law and civil litigation practices. He regularly represents clients before a broad array of state agencies, to include considerable trial experience before the Florida Division of Administrative Hearings.

Warren provides legal expertise in a wide variety of fields, including constitutional law, construction law, gaming, state contracting and procurement, affordable housing development, election law and ethics matters, and insurance regulation. He is a member of the Florida Bar and is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Florida, the U.S. 11th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

A native of Tampa, Warren received his Bachelor's degree, cum laude, in Psychology in 1986 from the University of South Florida, where he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

After serving four years as an officer in the U.S. Air Force in New Mexico, Texas, and what was then West Germany, he entered law school and received his Juris Doctor with highest honors from Florida State University in 1993.

Warren is a member of the Order of the Coif. While in law school, he served both as Notes and Comments Editor and as Piece Selection Committee Chair for the Florida State University Law Review.
